

The student response

- 'overwhelming positive responses'
- 'if there are complaints, it's that there's not enough of it'
- 'missing a lecture for a keen student is a big deal'
- 'they love having the lectures available'
- 'being able to go back and check or revise, they definitely like that, that's really important'

Juliet Hinrichsen
j.hinrichsen@coventry.ac.uk Amanda Hardy
a.hardy@coventry.ac.uk

What we offer:

Exemplars

of pedagogic practice from a range of UK and international universities

Implementation package with technical, policy and strategy briefings

Staff development

workshops and advice for academic, technical and managerial staff

Consultancy

on implementation, policy, pedagogy and practice

Lecture capture support site a one-stop-shop of information and resources

Potential benefits to students

- Review difficult concepts at own pace
- Spot-check own learning, reviewing only needed parts
- Resource for revision available at any time
- More time to expand on notes taken
- Accommodate for differing attention spans and styles
- Aid to language, learning and medical difficulties
- Direct way to catch up if lecture is missed
- Source of reference for basic queries

